18th-CENTURY ROYAL PALACE AT CASERTA WITH THE PARK, THE AQUEDUCT OF VANVITELLI AND THE SAN LEUCIO COMPLEX

The Royal Palace of Caserta was built in the 18th century. It has huge rooms and a beautiful park with trees, lakes, and fountains. These are supplied with water by the gigantic Vanvitelli Aqueduct. Near the palace is the San Leucio complex, a former silk factory where today you can learn about making special fabrics.
