

60

VIA APPIA. REGINA VIARUM

The Via Appia, also called "Regina Viarum" (Queen of Roads), is one of the oldest and most important roads of ancient Rome. Built more than 2,000 years ago, it connected Rome to southern Italy. It was used by soldiers, merchants, and travelers. Along its path are ancient monuments, tombs, and villages.

WE ARE IN THE TIME OF ANCIENT ROMANS. WHO IS
TRAVELING ON THE APPIA?
DRAW YOUR CHARACTERS!

McCarony, Shutterstock ©

